

Paper Dolls

Lesson 1 – 2/22/2025

Welcome to Saturday Art!

Your turn!

Please say your name, what grade you're in, and one other thing you want us to know about you!

Let's review...

What were Mr. Frankie's classroom rules?

Classroom Rules

Be kind!!!!

Respect each other (& each other's artwork)

Do not tell others
what or how to create

Create respectfully &
appropriately

Respect our materials

Stay curious!

Vocabulary review

Doll

A small model of a human figure

Collage

“Collage describes both the technique and the resulting work of art in which pieces of paper, photographs, fabric, etc. are arranged and stuck down onto a supporting surface” (from Tate Modern)

Identity

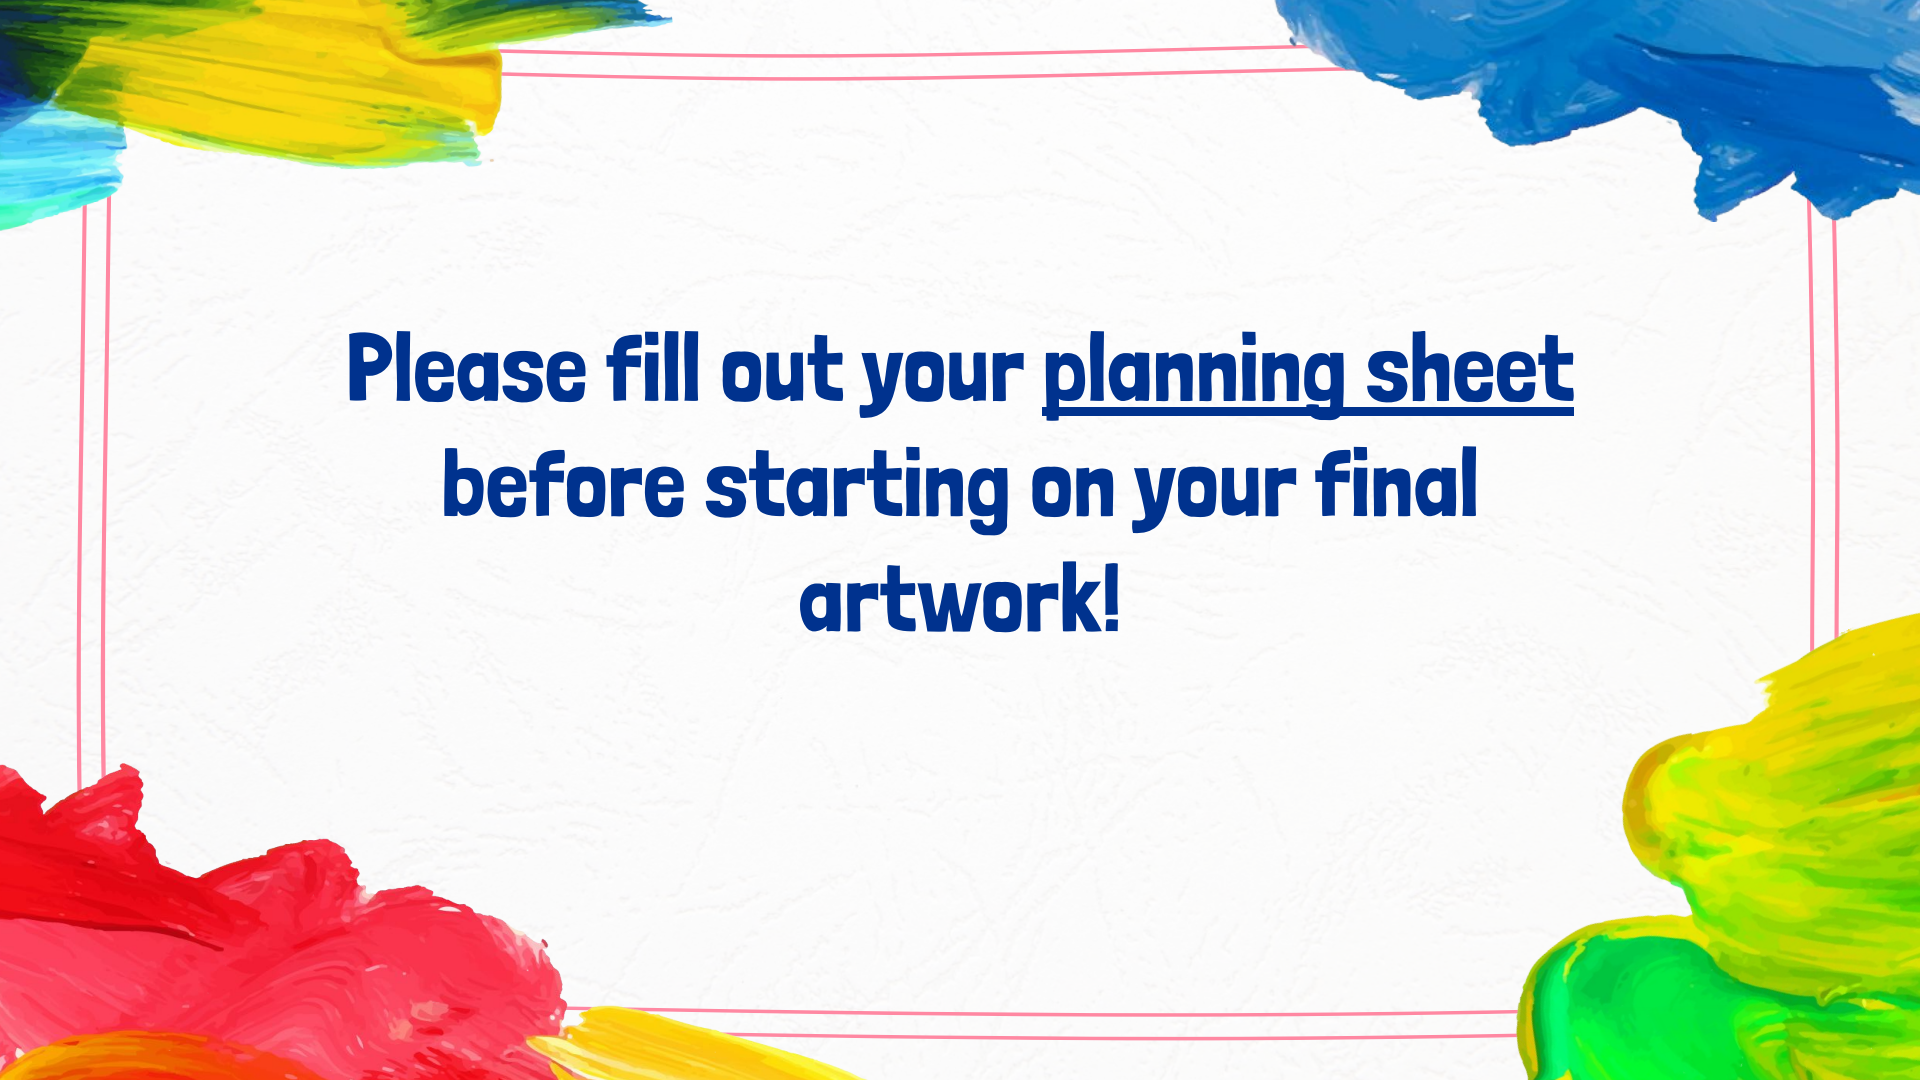

The qualities that make you unique, including (but not limited to) personality, beliefs, and experiences

Composition

“The arrangement of elements within a work of art”
(from Tate Modern)

Juxtaposition

The act of layering, contrasting, comparing, and/or joining together

The background features a white textured surface with four large, vibrant paint splashes in the corners: yellow and blue in the top-left, blue in the top-right, red in the bottom-left, and yellow and green in the bottom-right. A thin pink rectangular border is centered on the page.

Please fill out your planning sheet before starting on your final artwork!

Chas Hyman

@urweirdgf

“Through my art, I strive to highlight beauty in places people might not typically look—showing that even in the hardest times, there can be light, or even moments of amusement.”

Steps To Success

01

Plan

Brainstorm ideas on your planning sheet

02

Doll

Create your paper doll (with or without a template) and accessories

03

Background

Create your background

04

Cut

Carefully cut out your paper doll using scissors or an X-acto knife (remember to use a cutting mat!)

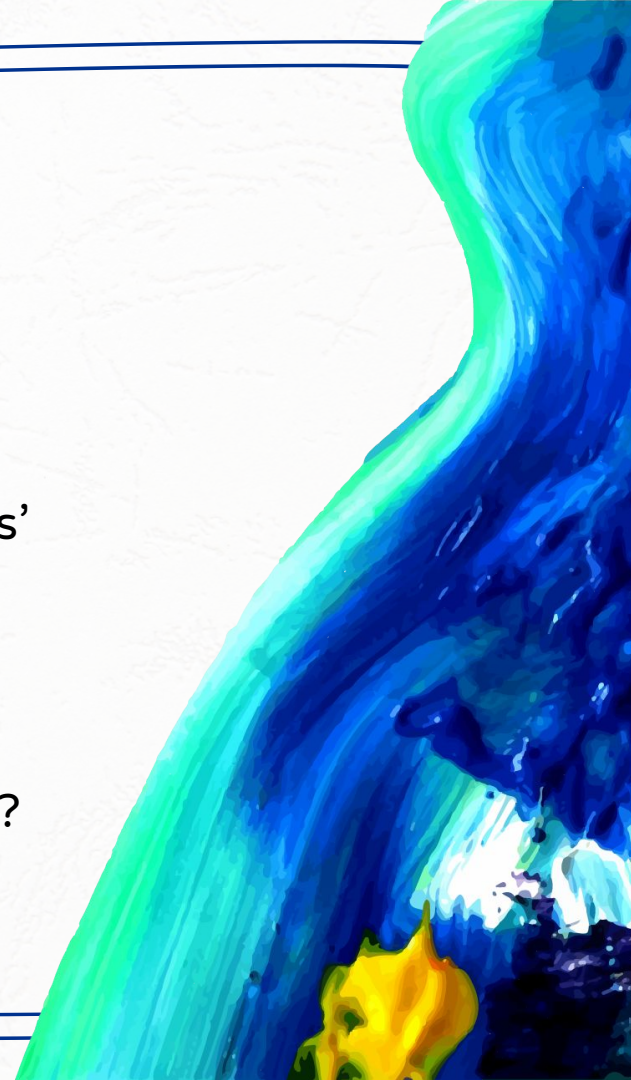

CLEAN UP

Take a look around...

- What choices stood out to you in your peers' work?
 - Composition, colors, identity traits?
- What do these intentional choices tell you about the artist?
- Any other observations/thoughts/comments?

THANK YOU

Make sure you have all of your belongings before heading out!
